

ONCE MORE PILE DRIVER OF HIGHEST COURT HITS TRUST

Government Wins Sweeping Victory Against American Tobacco Co. and Its Allied Corporations.

MUST DISINTEGRATE WITHIN EIGHT MONTHS AT THE MOST

Failure To Do So Means The Appointment of a Receiver.

Decision Is Regarded More Drastic Than That Against The Standard Oil.

Washington, D. C. May 31.—The American Tobacco Company and its accessories and subordinate corporations and companies, including the English corporation, were held by the Supreme Court of the United States to be co-operators in a combination illegal under the Sherman anti-trust law. The court sent the case back to the lower court with directions to hear further the parties so as to ascertain whether a new combination cannot be recreated in harmony with the law. Justice Harlan concurred in part with the court's opinion and dissented in part.

SWEEPING, SAYS WICKERSHAM.
The Tobacco Trust decision is characterized by Attorney General Wickersham as a "most comprehensive and sweeping victory for the Government."

The decision affects sixty five American corporations, two English corporations and twenty nine individual defendants.

An opportunity is given the trust to disintegrate and re create a condition of transacting business not repugnant to law.

If at the end of six to eight months

the corporations fail to bring themselves within the law a receivership and dissolution by court decree will follow.

The trust is held to have been guilty of intimidation and clearly to have shown a purpose to stifle competition.

Chief Justice White announced the decision, which was practically unanimous, although Justice Harlan dissented on several points.

As in the Standard Oil case, Justice Harlan presents the application of the "rule of reason" to the Sherman anti-trust law.

The court having held the defendant corporations guilty of wrongdoing, Justice Harlan "is not at all anxious" to perpetuate any new combination growing out of them.

This case is regarded as the most complicated suit that has ever reached the Supreme Court.

The court holds that there are five unlawful combinations, namely, the American Tobacco Company, the American Snuff Company, the American Cigar Company, the American Stogie Company and the McAndrews & Forbes Company, the last being concerned in the manufacture of licorice. These were restrained from engaging in interstate commerce.

Congressman Stanley, of the Second Kentucky district, is one of the prime movers of this anti-tobacco trust legislation and is jubilant over the decision handed down.

LAST WORD ON LOCATION

Elks Once More And Finally Decide to Rebuild on Old Site

AFTER PROTRACTED FIGHT

Decision First Vote A Tie
And Later Decided
32 to 31.

The Elks have finally and definitely decided to rebuild their home, recently burned, on the old site, on Ninth street. The question of location was reopened Tuesday night and finally decided on a motion by James Wootton that the Lodge, after resolving itself into the Elks Home Association, erect the new Home as a club house, without store rooms underneath, it it was agreed that if the home was to be a business house the old site was preferable, if a home without an eye to rentals, a new one would be better.

The question was discussed at length, Messrs. Wootton, John C. Duffy, G. H. Champlin, W. A. Wilgus, J. H. Bell, Nat F. Dorch and others supporting the motion and Messrs. V. M. Williamson, J. D. Russell, Jr., M. L. Elb, H. W. Linton, T. C. Underwood and others opposing it. The first two votes were ties, so closely was the crowd divided, one vote 30 to 30 and the other 31 to 31. A third count was made by tellers and the result stood 31 to 32, a late comer having arrived during the discussion. A cash offer of $8,500, with a check of $100 accompanying it, was presented by J. H. Bell, from Will Kimmons, but this was not voted upon after the other question had been decided.

On motion of W. A. Wilgus, Exalted Ruler L. H. Davis was authorized to appoint a building committee of five, and on a later motion the Exalted Ruler was made one of the
